Course description	As a social entity, human beings need communication in all areas of life, especially interpersonal communication. Scientific research in the last few decades has also reached findings in this direction. At this point, it is seen that the tools produced by the developing technology have a negative effect on face-to-face communication. It is worth noting that while the sentence "you should behave like a theater actor while sharing information with your students in the classroom" was sufficient for teacher candidates to communicate with their students in the past, today it has become a lesson.
Course objectives:	The aim of this lesson is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -communication and education -the importance of communication with the child -communication and teaching - interpersonal communication, to be able to listen and apply their subjects
